FUEL! FUEL!-What have our city authorities done, or what are they doing about fuel? Hundreds of suffering families await an answer.

Snow .- The first snow-takes of the season floated down about night-fall yesterday evening, and in a short time began to fall rapidly. The roofs, fences, ceedingly unpleasant. A few weeks ago we urged the necessity of taking immediate steps to supply our poor with fuel. in a great degree are we indebted to him Has anything been done? If we do not for the organization of the Regiment, and in Norfolk-principally by the female act promptly there will be a frightful amount of suffering among us. Authorities! citizens! you must act. To neglect the hundreds of families who are now suffering from this inclement weather will be treason against God and humanity.

THEATRE.-To-morrow afternoon, Mr. S. T. Simons, the gentlemanly Treasurer gret on our part, that we find it necessaof the above-named establishment, takes a Benefit. The bill offered for that oc- fliction will not prove to be of so serious casion is one of the most entertaining a character as now anticipated, and that and attractive we have yet seen. Resignation of Lieut. Col. Gano, 69th Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

At a meeting of the officers of the 69th Regiment O. V. I., Captain Patron, Lieut. CUNNINGHAM, and Lieut. SMITH were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of regret at the resignation of Lieut. Col. GANO.

At an adjourned meeting the following resolutions were laid before the meeting and unanimously adopted ;

WHEREAS, Lieut.-Col. C. L. Gayo has become afflicted with a partial loss of sight from diseased eyes to such an extent as to render it absolutely necessary, by the advice of his medical attendants, that he should leave the service, in order that he should avail himself of compeand side-walks were soon whitened, and | tent medical aid-and whereas in purthe weather is now raw, chilly and ex- suance of said advice he has tendered his resignation; therefore,

MORGAN'S WHEREABOUTS - We learn AJ, Lee Anne will commence running a by last night's train, on the Nashville paily Line of Stages from Nashville to Railroad, that John Morgan, with eight hundred or twelve hundred mon, arrived at Litchfield night before last; but so far similar report, exhibiting the gain and to himself. Communications and subas we could learn there were no forces in pursuit, unless it should prove a fact that Colonel Wolford has been sent forward for that purpose. A confirmation was brought up on the train, of the report that Wolford was after him. We trust he has a sufficient force. We doubt very much if there is another man in the army so well qualified for the service. Wolford will catch him if anybody can; if not he will follow him to the Gulf, provided he is not ordered back .-We sincerely trust Gen. Buell will give Col. Wolford a large discretion in this matter, and we may yet have the pleasure of announcing the extermination of Morgan and his gang, -Lou. Democrat, 23d.

Our military authorities have determined to make Kentucky rebels incur To all the Military Departments in No. 50 College St., Merchants Bank, some of the penalties of rebellion. Yesterday Mrs. Ballard, who resides at the corner of Brook street and Broadway, was notified that her residence would be needed for hospital purposes, and it was so occupied last evening. It will be used Leople are getting tired of so much talk about bagging rebels, Our forces are always about to bag rebels, but don't bag them. The promises come duly off, but the bagging doesn't. When Lee's forces CORRECTED DAILY by W. E. CHILDS & CO., crossed the Potomac into Maryland, it was published everywhere that our arn would bag the whole of them, but didn't. When Stuart's cavalry more r cently made a bold dash 200 miles throu Maryland into Pennsylvania, the count was vehemently assured that we shou bag every man of them, but we didn When Gen. Sill, a few days ago, made rush into Frankfort, scattering Morgan guerrillas, it is said, in all directions, s were cheered with the declaration th he could bag the last man of them, I he couldn't. When Bragg retreated aft the battle of Chaplin Hills, we were exhilarated with the intelligence to Buell, Gilbert, and Granger were on sides of him, hemming hum in, and th

they would bag him just as certainly

CONDITION OF THE WOUNDED AT PEREY-VILLE.-We have received a note from Surgeon-General Weber, of Onio, in which he corrects a number of statements falsely represented to have been made by him in reference to the state of affairs at Perryville, Ky. Gen. Weber says it is not true that the wounded at Perryville were dying for want of food and necessary attention at the time of the arrival of his party there. The army had, after the engagement, moved forward in anticipation of another engagement, neces-sarily, taking with it most of the surgeons and supplies. This no doubt occasioned some temporary suffering, but,
